

WALTERIA CIVIC ORGANIZATION TO SPONSOR PARTY

Members of the Walteria Civic Organization will appeal directly to the State Highway Patrol department for help in relieving the dangerous situation at the school crossing on Pacific Coast highway near the Walteria school, according to plans outlined at the meeting of the group held at the school Wednesday night.

Sgt. Al Conger, chairman of the Christmas party, announced that plans are progressing for the community party to be held Tuesday night, Dec. 23 at the school. A program for both the children and adults will be followed by a treat for all the children.

An appeal was made to secure a new leader for Girl Scout Troop No. 57, sponsored by the Civic Organization and the following committee named in charge: Mrs. G. S. Munyer, Mrs. B. J. Michels and R. L. Kuest, recently appointed Boy Scout commissioner from Walteria.

Yule Program Highlights Walteria PTA Session

At the regular December meeting of the Walteria Association of Parents and Teachers, members and guests were most delightfully entertained by the pupils of the Walteria School. The school auditorium was decorated for the Christmas season with a tree, decorated with ornaments furnished by the children, placed on the stage, and groups of Christmas candles and other decorations around the room.

The flag salute was led by 4th grade pupils and the inspirational message was given by Rev. Edward Nash, pastor of the Walteria Baptist Church.

The following program was presented by the program chairman, Mrs. J. E. Kiecklighter: Mrs. Theriault's 1st grade girls gave a recitation, "Santa Claus"; the 2nd grade pupils, whose teacher is Mrs. Hangar, sang "Jingle Bells," and recited "The Night Before Christmas"; Mrs. Downing's 3rd grade pupils presented a Christmas pageant, "Shepherd Boy." The pupils of the 4th grade, teacher Mrs. Showler, told of Christmas in other lands with supporting Christmas songs and pupils of the 5th and 6th grades taught by Mr. Davidson, sang a group of songs: "White Christmas," "Shepherd Boy," "The First Noel," and "Silent Night."

The business meeting followed the program with Mrs. B. J. Michels, presiding, in the absence of the secretary, Mrs. Roy Palmer. Mrs. Carl Cramer was secretary pro tem. After the reading of a letter from Mrs. Gertrude Boyle, child welfare chairman of the American Legion Auxiliary of Torrance, the association voted to give $10.00 to help purchase the audiometer, being bought for the Torrance schools.

Mrs. Michels announced that when the Torrance Parent-Teachers Council was formed recently Mrs. Evar Jansson, Walteria was elected second vice-president and Mrs. Paul Slo-

HALLDALE P.T.A. HEARS 50 PUPILS IN CAROL PROGRAM

A choir of 50 voices from the fourth, fifth, and sixth grades presented a music program of Christmas carols at the regular meeting of Halldale Elementary P.T.A. Thursday evening at the Nazarene Church.

Tableaux telling the story of the birth of Christ were given in the form of living pictures, with Woodrow Buchanan as narrator, and Mary Stubbs as vocalist.

The attendance by parents was so large that there is to be a repeat performance at the church at a later date. The program closed with a vocal solo by Doris Popovich, "White Christmas."

Mrs. Mary Lindberg Honored At Surprise Birthday Party

The original Central Evangelical Guild group of wartime Red Cross workers who have continued their friendship by gathering once a month, surprised Mrs. Mary Lindberg, 1318 Beutala avenue, last Friday with a birthday party.

The Christmas table decorations were arranged by Mrs. Mabel Haslam, and a corsage was presented to each person attending by Mrs. Edith Hudson.

The honoree had approximately 1000 knitting hours to her credit for the Red Cross during the war.

Guests were Meses. Maud Lock, Marie Taylor, Tona Frauhiger, Christina Ferguson, Katherine Ferguson, Margaret Felker, Daisy Smith, Elizabeth Warthan, and Mrs. Lindberg, Mrs. Haslam, and Mrs. Hudson.

STUDY CLUB TO HOLD CHRISTMAS MEETING FRIDAY

Members of the Friday Morning Study Club will celebrate at their annual Christmas meeting Friday at 9:45 a.m. in the First Methodist Church, 6th and Grand streets, San Pedro.

The formal program will open at 10 with Mrs. Elmer Higgs presiding, Dr. Richard M. Saunders, president of Palos Verdes College, will talk on "Christmas in a New Setting."

Music from "The Messiah" and many well-loved Christmas selections will be sung by the Aeolian quartette, and the audience will join in the singing of Christmas carols.

Following the meeting members will meet in Friendship Hall where a holiday buffet will be served by Mrs. Violette Brown, hospitality chairman.

Mrs. Higgs is asking all members to bring non-perishable groceries to the meeting for Christmas baskets to be presented to the San Pedro District Welfare Council for needy families.
